Hope of the Generations Church Mourns the Loss of Dr. Henry W. Wright

Author of A More Excellent Way Dies at 75

Thomaston, Georgia—Dr. Henry W. Wright, well-known pastor and author of the best-selling book A More Excellent Way, passed away on November 18, 2019 due to complications related to a routine heart procedure.

Wright founded the Thomaston, Georgia based Hope of the Generations Church, ministry outreach Be in Health Global and the world-renowned For My Life Retreat. The compassion that Father God kindled in his heart for humanity and his dedication to the Word of God touched countless lives around the world in over 30 years of Christian ministry. His determination was to oversee and recover the acts of the first century church globally through healing, miracles and restored lives via the burgeoning A.C.T.S. initiative (Association of Churches Teaching and Serving).

His foundational book, A More Excellent Way, which was #1 on the Christian Retailing health and fitness bestseller list for 40 weeks and has been translated into Dutch, French, Korean, Mandarin, Spanish, Thai, and Vietnamese. Numerous testimonies of physical and psychological healings and miracles have been documented when readers applied the biblical principles found in this book.

Wright earned a doctorate in Christian Therapeutic Counseling from Chesapeake Bible College. He developed the groundbreaking academic discipline of PneumaPsychoSomatology® which studies the connection between biblical spirituality, psychology, and biology.

Dr. Wright's beloved wife, Pastor Donna, will continue to pastor at Hope of the Generations church along with other members of the five-fold eldership. She will also remain in her role as CEO of Be in Health to continue implementing the vision of her husband. Prior to his passing, Dr. Wright and the board made it a priority to lay out his vision for the church for generations to come. He took care to raise up the next generation of leaders to carry it steadfastly forward into the future.

Funeral services will be held at Hope of the Generations Church, 4178 Crest Hwy, Thomaston, GA 30268. More information about funeral arrangements is available at www.BeinHealth.com.
